

Submission Guidelines

Before you submit your potential blog post, first read these guidelines!

1. All submissions should be submitted in a Word document. The document should be called your name and the title of your post (if your post is too long then you may put the first few words of the title.)
2. All posts must be a maximum of 800 words and a minimum of 250. The title must be above all posts.
3. When you submit your post make sure when you email it you attach the pictures you want to be used. This includes the featured picture (this is the first picture people see before they open the post.)

What you can and cannot submit!

You can:

Write a post that is relevant to the theme of the blog (read the blog first then write your post. This is recommended.)

Submit more than one post. Just know that all submissions may not make it to the blog.

You cannot submit these topics:

Profanity is to be limited. More than two words of profanity will not be published in the blog. The f-word and b-word are not at all permitted.

Topics that strike controversy will not be accepted. This would include:

Politics
Religion
Abortion
LGBT Rights
Women's Rights/ #MeToo Movement
Racism
Gossip/ Celebrity Gossip

If you have any questions, email me at wherethetiarafits@yahoo.com. Happy blogging!